Horus • Facts & Mythology about the Egyptian god of the Sky

Horus eventually defeated Seth, thus avenging his father and assuming the rule. In the fight, Horus's left eye (i.e., the moon) was damaged—this being a mythical explanation of the moon's phases—and was healed by the god Thoth. The figure of the restored eye (the wedjat eye) became a powerful amulet.

Horus is one of the two gods released in this patch, and since it's a double release for the first time, I had to pull double duty and work on both gods at once. I focused on Horus first, because his kit appeals to me more, and has a playstyle that synergizes with how I approach the game. So let's talk some SMITE! Horus is the son of Osiris and is the rightful heir to the crown, destined to rule the Egyptian Pantheon. However, Set usurped the throne and murdered Osiris in cold blood.
